TEN MILE ZONE LAW TEST CASE HEARING IN HIGH COURT TODAY

(By Associated Press)

Austin, April 24.—Oral arguments in the habeas corpus suit to test the constitutionality of the ten-mile zone law were postponed by the court of criminal appeals until tomorrow. Other cases had been set down for today was the reason.

Austin, Tex., April 24.—The court of criminal appeals today was to have heard arguments in the habeas corpus suit of G. H. Hollingsworth, of Fort Worth, filed last Wednesday for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the ten-mile zone law.

Hollingsworth was charged with selling a quart of whiskey within the ten-mile zone and placed in jail. The court of criminal appeals granted $3,000 bail pending the hearing today. The suit, which was filed by Leonard M. Levy and McLean, Scott and McLean, attacked the zone law on eight specific grounds as follows:

That it conflicts with section 20 article 16, which provides for local option elections.
That prior to the date of its enactment congress had legislated on the same subject, enacting a law making it a penal offense to sell or give liquor to soldiers.

That it is void and of no force because it is not a valid exercise of the police powers of the state.
That the title clause is defective and insufficient and conflicts with the body of the act.

That the act is void for the reason that the same contains more than one subject.

That the act is void and of no effect because it contains more than one subject which is not expressed in the title.

That it is further void on the ground it is vague, indefinite and uncertain and its application and operation is wholly dependent upon the location, removal or shifting of army camps.

That it is void and of no effect for various other reasons manifested upon the face of the act.

Liberty Day in Bryan Will be Celebrated in Manner Fitting Occasion

Friday will be Liberty day in Bryan. The Bryan and Brazos County Commercial association has taken it on as a part of the war activities work, and the committee appointed to handle the celebration has already put its plans into execution. There will be speaking to a crowd from all over the Bryan territory, if extensive advertising can bring the people.

The committee, consisting of S. B. Wilson, A. B. O'Flaherty and S. E. Oberstadt, met at the club rooms yesterday afternoon. A strong speaker will be sent here by the federal reserve bank, with whom Judge Maloney was in touch by telephone yesterday, relative to the matter. The name of the speaker was not announced by the bank officials. He will be introduced by Hon. W. C. Davis.

Steps are being taken with the proper authorities to secure the services of the A. and M. college band. Six airplanes will fly to Bryan on that day from Ellington field, according to information obtained from the commandant there.

The following committees were appointed:

Reception—Judge J. T. Maloney, Mayor John M. Lawrence, President O. S. Johnson of the Commercial club, Ed. E. Talmage, Hon. W. C. Davis and W. S. Barron.
Arrangements—David Reid, Roy Hudspeth, C. L. Beason, J. Tom Smith, S. E. Oberstadt.

Band—A. M. Waldrop, Wilson Bradley and O. S. Johnson.
Public order—T. C. Nunn, John Conlee, Louis White, L. E. Morehead and Lon Baker.

The speaking will be at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on a platform to be erected in the middle of the intersection of Main and Twenty-fifth streets. These streets will be roped off for the occasion and autos and other vehicles will not be permitted to pass, although, if they suppress their horns and exhausts, they will be allowed to approach the ropes and remain there during the exercises. No movements of vehicles about the speaking place will be permitted during the time of the speaking, which is the duty of the public order committee to regulate.

Stores are expected to close promptly at 12 o'clock noon.

ALLEN SMITH PLANS CANNING FACTORY AS RESULT OF GROWTH

Miss Martha Gillespie, county home agent, has ordered for Allen Smith a large canning outfit. She placed an order earlier in the week for a smaller community canning outfit for installation at Edge. She has also ordered a high grade home canner for her use in the demonstration kitchen and also one for Mr. Wilcox.

Mr. Smith's outfit is the beginning of a canning factory here, if this year's business gives promise of future development. He took his choice between the size of canner usually recommended for communities and the factory No. 1 size, choosing the latter at a cost of $150 in Houston. This outfit has a capacity of 1,000 to 2,500 cans daily, depending upon the size of cans used. The retort is 25 by 27 inches in size, fitted with fire box, cranes, tools and all the paraphernalia. Having ordered the larger size it is apparent that Mr. Allen is looking into the development of a larger business, and probably the growth into a full fledged canning, preserving and pickle factory. It will be installed in the rear of his establishment on North Main street, where it will be accessible to the switch track of the International and Great Northern railway.

In dealing with the growers Mr. Smith, it is understood, will do canning on any one of three plans, to suit the customer. He will work on the toll basis, taking half the fresh produce as his pay for doing the canning and furnishing the cans. He will work for a cash consideration, or he will buy the fresh vegetables outright, as is customary with strictly commercial canners, and preserve them to suit himself.

Miss Gillespie states that these canning outfits should arrive this week as the house in Houston, which is a branch of the Arkansas factory, assured her they had them in stock.

LOOKS MIGHTY GOOD AT WIXON CREEK WELL

"It looks mighty good," said J. D. Adams, president of the Blanche L. Petroleum association, which is slaking the well at Wixon creek. He was in town today from the well and states that they have penetrated the rock and come upon a quantity of gas that was blowing and bubbling, and as sufficient quantities for fuel in the well drilling operations if they were in shape to use it. The rock through which they drilled was 97 feet in thickness. The drill, he says, is going right on down and is working in blue gumbo now. The well is now down something over 500 feet.

ARGENTINE ECONOMIC CONDITION IS BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

Buenos Aires, April 1. (by mail).—Argentina's financial and economic condition apparently is being strengthened as the war drags on. The republic recently signed a convention for financing the sale of several million tons of cereals to the entente allies, which really amounted to a huge loan, and there have been other events in financial circles which show that Argentine credit abroad and confidence at home are progressing hand in hand.

The fact that is being most widely commented upon by the Argentine newspapers is that confidence at home has become so strong that stocks of the National Mortgage bank, known as "credulas hipotecarias," are being quoted at par for the first time in their history. These cedulas are looked upon in financial circles as barometers of the nation's condition for they are shares in a bank which is backed by the government and they fluctuate with the improvement or weakening of government credit. Usually they are quoted around 94 to 96 and they have never gone to par even during the boom seasons when everything else was being sought by investors.

Now there is an animated competition on the stock exchange for these cedulas and large blocks of them are changing hands daily, which the public's confidence in the Argentine government has become so strengthened that it, at last, is willing to invest in government shares the large surplus of money which has been lying idle in savings banks ever since the war began.

DESTRUCTION HEAVY AT U-BOAT BASES, SAY THE SURVIVORS

(By Associated Press)

London, April 24.—Not only was the canal at Zeebrugge blocked, but the British sailors and marines who participated in the raid on the German submarine bases believe they destroyed every gun on the mole, demolished the sheds throughout its entire length and blew up large stores of munitions in the sheds, according to stories by survivors at a Kentish port. The German defenders believed their assaults were Americans, and according to some survivors, this story was told, "It's the Americans, it's the Yankees." Some of the Germans bolted en masse from the nearest batteries, leaving their guns to the British. The guns were destroyed one by one, while other Britishers dealt with the sheds and munitions stores with flame throwers.

RURAL TEACHERS AND PREACHERS CALLED TO COLLEGE JUNE 24

In the hope of contributing something definite toward the mobilization of all rural social forces for constructive and united effort during the period of the war, President W. B. Bizzell of A. and M. college has called a conference on rural life to be held at the college the week beginning June 24.

The conference will be divided into two meetings, one on rural schools and the other for rural pastors, but it is contemplated that problems of rural health and rural organization will also be considered. In addition to rural teachers and ministers, county school superintendents, county health officers, county commissioners, county school trustees, members of county councils of defense and other war workers are invited to attend the conference, which Dr. Bizzell announces, will be a literal school of instruction where much valuable information will be obtained with reference to new problems that have grown out of the war.

Some of the most notable men in the United States have been invited and have accepted invitations to address this conference. Invitations have been extended, also, to the directors of the various war activities in Washington and it is anticipated that several national leaders will avail themselves of the opportunity to emphasize war problems and the relation of rural social forces to them.

Sebesta Acquitted by Peden Decision

E. A. Peden, federal food administrator for Texas, has made known his decision in the Sebesta case, from Bryan, as follows:

"I duly received the record of the testimony submitted at the hearing conducted at Bryan, Texas, of alleged violation by John M. Sebesta for alleged sale of flour without substitutes. I have carefully read the evidence; also the findings of the special examiner. He found that a violation occurred but does not say whether it was wilful. The sale in question of three pounds of flour, a very small quantity. The record does not show any other violation. The sale was not made by Mr. Sebesta in person, but by one of his clerks and the customer got away from the store. Mr. Sebesta, his attention being called to the sale, immediately took the flour from the purchaser and returned him the purchase price. Decision with reference to the revocation of license must be based entirely upon the testimony submitted and I do not feel that this record presents a case justifying administrative action of any sort."

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT OF THE BRYAN WEEKLY EAGLE

Americanize the Foreign Born

As a first step in the direction of making America for Americans and making Americans in fact and in truth of those immigrants who come to this country, the action of the conference at Washington, which was reported to The Eagle by Senator J. R. Astin, it is to be highly commended. It can be regarded, however, as only a first step. Our experience with the Germans in this country during the past year has demonstrated that it can be no other than a single step, long as it may be. The passage of a law by congress and the several states prohibiting the teaching of German in the elementary schools should not be confined to German. All languages except the language of this country, English, should be equally prohibited. Nor should the law be restricted to the public schools, but to private schools as well. And to be fully effective, it should be passed by every state legislature.

The teaching of English only in the elementary grades would not restrict the teaching of any language in the high schools. While it is true that to properly learn to speak a language one should begin in childhood, it is nevertheless sufficient for the ordinary uses that it be taught only in the high schools, where a student by proper application can acquire a splendid proficiency in the reading of a language and learn to speak it with sufficient fluency to get along well in any foreign country. The chief advantage of a foreign language to a vast majority of the students of any country is to be able to read in the original the literatures of the country, and thus grasp the finer and more intricate expressions of the author and at the same time be independent of the translator who may not always be faithful to his trust.

The effect of teaching only English in the elementary grades would be that foreign born children or children of foreign born parents would not only become proficient in the language of their adopted country, but they would have an influence at home, almost compelling reluctant parents to pick up the language. It is a well known fact that in some foreign colonies of the United States the older residents particularly and some of the younger ones do not speak English at all, and yet they are at least residents of this country, came here to better themselves and perhaps expect to remain, yet without being a part and parcel of the nation. They are as much foreigners as if they had never had such ambitions. They fall utterly to grasp the reason for our national existence, the sentiments that underlie the history of the country and the principles of liberty, equality and justice upon which this government is founded. The reason for this lies almost entirely in the fact that they have failed to learn the language of the country, for by studying in their native language they have employed native literature as text books.

Hence, it follows that not only should there be prohibition against the teaching of any foreign language in the public or private schools, but every foreign born applicant for citizenship should be required, before being entitled to his final papers, to pass an examination in the language of the country and on the constitution and the laws that effect citizenship in this country. He should be required to give evidence that he knows something about the country before being admitted to citizenship. Some secret orders require that candidates for degrees must pass an examination in the degree just previously taken before being admitted to the next degree. This is done to demonstrate that they have to some extent absorbed the principles of the order, as well as its workings. The same idea should apply to those seeking citizenship.

Unless such restrictions are put upon those who flock to our shores, we will have no end of troubles in the future. We are now a nation of 100,000,000 people and as we grow our population will steadily become more unwieldy unless steps are taken to make it more homogenous. We cannot survive the internal dissensions that might arise and will arise from a top heavy foreign population that is without comprehension or even slight understanding of the principles and sentiments of this nation, and who, from youth up, is not taught a love for the stars and stripes because of what they stand for. We must make a serious effort to convert into Americans in truth and in fact all who come to our shores, and those who fail to entitle themselves to citizenship should be prohibited from longer residence in this country than would enable them to acquire citizenship. In other words, those who have no good reason to remain here should be deported after the period of probation for citizenship, unless they have taken steps to become citizens.

It might be said that we have good FOODS TASTE BETTER COOKED—TOBACCO TASTES BETTER TOASTED

Since the day of the caveman, who liked his meat raw, civilization has learned a lot about the scientific treatment of the things we eat.

Naturally none of us would now prefer to have our meat raw, our potatoes as they come from the ground, our coffee unroasted.

And naturally follows the great discovery recently made by The American Tobacco Co.—that tobacco tastes better TOASTED!

This wonderful new idea—simple like all great inventions—was first used in producing the famous LUCKY STRIKE Cigarette—made of toasted Burley tobacco.

Burley has a mellow flavor, entirely different from the tobacco usually used for cigarettes. It is a pipe tobacco and LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes taste like a pipe.

men and women in this country who have not taken out citizenship papers and who have no intention of doing so, but who obey the laws, who add to the wealth of the country and who raise their families here to assist in the making of the country. That argument would have been well taken and was well taken a half century ago, when we needed population and the peculiar qualities of the best of the foreign born, when we could afford to open our doors to those seeking the United States as a political asylum, which doors should never be closed for that matter. But the time has passed when it will be safe to open those doors wide, let everybody in without giving regard to the future of the country and to protect it from insidious encroachments of designing rulers of other nations. As an asylum there should be no restrictions, but coming to an asylum should justify an expression of appreciation which should be in the making of applications for citizenship. If he who seeks this country as an asylum does not sufficiently appreciate the principles and sentiments upon which this nation is founded, he has no right to continue to remain here and enjoy the benefits of this government and not be a part of it.

As no nation can survive that is half free and half slave, neither can a nation survive that is half American and half foreign, for the foreign born, holding itself under no special obligations to this nation and obeying its laws because only of the force behind them, will, should there be a temporary period of weakness as comes with war, take advantage of that fact and seek to seize the government, by methods direct or indirect. We have seen this demonstrated since this war began. We have discovered that Germany years ago and continuously since has sought to Germanize the United States through the employment of German teachers in our schools, the writing into our school books of German literature in fulsome praise of the German kaiser and German methods and traditions, through the German-American alliance and through the machinations of hired spies, who sought to work upon the loyalty of the German-Americans. It has taken the Germans in this country almost a year to find their bearings, as a result, and had we pitched the war on a plane different from that which we did, it is doubtful if we would not have had German uprisings. We have insisted from the first that we are warring to make democracy safe throughout the world; that we are not warring against the German people, but against the German system—Prussianism, militarism and the other evils to which many Germans came to this country. But the danger existed just the same, and could have developed into physical menace as easily as not in the earlier stages of our participation in the war. The Germans, however, have come to see the United States in the right light, to understand that the United States is in reality fighting for the preservation of their beloved Fatherland and seeking to wrest it from the devilish clutches of the military party in Germany.

This, to the same extent, would not have been so serious a menace to the nation had we had in force and effect such laws as have been suggested, for the younger generations at least and the older people to a larger degree than exists, would have had a better understanding and comprehension of the principles of the United States and the sentiments that drove us to war. In short, they would have been better Americans and lesser Germans. And that is true of any of the many nationalities we have in this country.

DiStefano Announces for Co. Commissioner

Charles DiStefano has authorized The Eagle to announce his candidacy for re-election to the position of county commissioner from the third precinct. Mr. DiStefano is now completing his first term in the position and makes the flat statement that during the time he has held office he has done more for the betterment of the roads in his precinct than had been done in the previous fifteen years. It is a fact that he is a hard, earnest worker, whether for himself or the county. He came here in knee trousers from Robertson county in 1909, locating at Smetana, has won himself a fine farm and a nice home when he was 23 years of age. Among many, Mr. DiStefano has one especially admirable attribute. In the sessions of the commissioners' court he is not given to much talking, but he listens, forms his opinions, says what he has to say and votes accordingly. He has made a good, common sense commissioner and one who is willing to learn, and practice the best he has learned. He thinks his experience in the office should entitle him to another term, because he has learned and is better qualified than when first elected.

TEXAS EGG SHOW PUT OFF TO MAY 8-11

F. W. Kazmeier, poultry husbandman, extension service, A. and M. college, says the Texas egg show, to be held in Houston, has been postponed until May 8, 9, 10 and 11. This has been found necessary for several reasons, one of which was the difficulty of securing a desirable location in which to hold the show.

Plans are being very rapidly pushed, however, to make this the greatest show of its kind ever held. The premium list will be available within a few days. The prizes for all varieties of eggs are very liberal. Here is your chance of boosting the poultry business.

Do not let the fact that the show has been postponed discourage you in any way. Make arrangements to make at least several entries. Competition is open to the world. An entry consists of twelve eggs, all of uniform size, shape, color, with perfect shells and perfectly fresh. You can enter any variety of hen eggs, duck eggs, goose eggs, turkey eggs, pigeon eggs, guinea eggs, ostrich eggs, bantam eggs, peafowl eggs, etc.

J. M. Atkins for County Commissioner

J. M. Atkins of Rock Prairie has authorized The Eagle to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of county commissioner of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the July democratic primary. Mr. Atkins was raised on the precinct he is now serving as commissioner and is well and favorably known to practically every voter in the precinct. He is a substantial and useful citizen of the county, shirking none of his duties of citizenship either to the county or to the community in which he resides. He is honorable, upright and just in all his dealings and is held in high esteem by his neighbors and friends.

Mr. Atkins' father, the late J. P. Atkins, represented precinct No. 1 as commissioner, and upon his death the son was appointed to fill out his unexpired term and was reelected by the people at the next election upon the record he had made during the time he had been in office. He again seeks re-election and is standing squarely upon his record of faithful and careful service as warrant for the favor he is asking at the hands of the people.

It is well known to everybody that Mr. Atkins stands for progress all along the line, for good roads, good bridges, good schools and for the very best of everything for the people that is within the bounds of safe, conservative business methods. He takes the position there is nothing too good for the people, yet he would not go beyond the resources of the county, would stay within safe bounds and would guard the people's finances and the people's business, even with greater care and greater watchfulness than he would his own. If again entrusted with this important office, he promises for the future as in the past, the most faithful, most efficient service he is capable of rendering.

The Eagle takes pleasure in submitting Mr. Atkins' candidacy to the voters of Precinct No. 1 for their consideration.

HOME NEWS BEATS "PINK" LETTERS.

Writing in a cantonment from which our soldiers embark for France, Mrs. Anna Steese Richardson sends this message through the May Dorman's Home Companion to all mothers of soldier boys:

"Just one word to mothers! Don't think Bill or Jack or Harry is getting so many letters from his friends especially girls, that you need not write. Your boy wants your letters now as he never wanted them before, and this goes, no matter how you parted."

"A boy of nineteen leaned over the counter the other morning twirling a 'pink' letter he had just received. The stationery may be white, gray, yellow, blue or lilac, but the letter remains 'pink' if it comes from a girl."

"Yes, she writes pretty regular," said the homesick lad. "But I haven't had a word from my mother in three weeks."

"Maybe she wrote to Camp McArthur and the letter has not been forwarded."

"Nix—she thinks I don't care about her letters. We never got along very well. Mother and I. Brother Fred was the white-haired boy in our family. I'm the kind that always gets in Dutch. I didn't write home much at first, but now—"

"Do you catch the wistfulness of that pause?"

"The nearer a man gets to the transport which will carry him overseas, the more his own folks and his home town mean to him."

"Many readers have asked me to find out just what our fighting men want most. And every man approached gave the same answer: 'Letters from home!'"

The people of Brazos county communities are called upon to observe Liberty day, next Friday by the Brazos county Liberty bond committee. This is in accordance with the proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson, which is as follows:

By the president of the United States of America—a proclamation: "An enemy who has grossly abused the power of organized government and who seeks to dominate the world by the might of the sword, challenges the life of all the free nations of the earth. Our brave sons are facing the fire of battle in defense of the honor and rights of America and the liberty of nations. To sustain them and to assist our gallant associates in the war, a generous and patriotic people have been called upon to subscribe to the third Liberty loan."

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do appoint Friday, the 26th of April, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, as Liberty day. On the afternoon of that day I request the people of the United States to assemble in their respective communities and liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the nation's cause. Patriotic demonstration should be held in every city, town and hamlet throughout the land under the general direction of the secretary of the treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty loan committee organized by the federal reserve banks. Let the nation's response to the third Liberty loan express in unmistakable terms the determination of America to fight for peace, the permanent peace of justice."

"For the purpose of participating in Liberty day celebrations all employees of the federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared may be excused at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, the 26th of April."

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed."

"Done in the District of Columbia this 18th day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the independence of the United States of America one hundred and forty-second."

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

"By the President: "ROBERT LANSING, "Secretary of State."

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful skin beautifier by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the lemon pulp through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whiten and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands. Adv.

KURTEN COMING ON.

At a meeting held there Sunday afternoon $4,500 was subscribed by 120 people, including men, women and children. Ham Buchanan presided and talks were made by F. L. Henderson, Robert Armstrong and George Hadley, all on the Liberty loan. The seventy-two registered alien enemies were not spared in the talks, and Mr. Hadley called on all who thought this country was right in this war to raise their hands. Every hand went up.

STEELE'S STORE OVER.

Steele's Store has gone over the top. At a meeting held there Sunday afternoon the citizens of the community were out in large numbers, the absent ones having been brought in autos, and the subscriptions totaled $14,250, making the grand total $16,300. And they still keep on coming. Their quota was $11,000, and they have thus shown a spirit of great patriotism by making an effort to double their subscriptions, and thereby adding a star to their honor flag which will wave in Steele's Store as soon as received.

Father De Simone presided and made a patriotic speech and was followed by Judge J. T. Maloney, county chairman of the Liberty loan, who ended by calling for subscriptions. Representatives of the banks were on hand and most of the purchases were closed right there.

SMETANA BUYS $2,500.

Smetana subscribed $2,500 at a meeting held Sunday afternoon. Prof. Frank Kadanka presided and conducted a patriotic program rendered by the school. It consisted of patriotic songs and recitations. Hon. Lamar Betteha, C. I. Benson and Hon. W. C. Davis, after which S. E. Eberstadt received subscriptions to the Liberty loan. Committees are to work this week in making a thorough canvass of the community, as they are very anxious to get over the top.

B. A. HUGHGINS DEAD AFTER RESIDENCE HERE OF OVER THIRTY YEARS

From Saturday's Daily Eagle
B. A. Hughgins died this morning at 8:30 o'clock at his home in the Harris school house community, after having been to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis from which he evidently thought he had sufficiently recovered to warrant him assuming his normal duties. He suffered a relapse that terminated fatally, pneumonia developing with other complications. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. M. Bullock of the Baptist church, to which organization Mr. Hughgins has long been a member and a true and faithful one, one who has given every evidence of trying to live a real Christian life. The interment will be in the Wynn cemetery.

Mr. Hughgins came to this county over thirty years ago, when he was first married, and established himself in the community in which he died. He has prospered, having one of the finest farms and nicest rural homes in the county, and has in the meantime raised, educated and brought to good citizenship nine children, five girls and four boys, who, with the widow survive him. One of the boys is in the Great Lakes naval training station.

The staunch and sterling character of Mr. Hughgins is evidenced not only in his family and his environment but in the hearts of his neighbors, who have only the highest word of praise for him.

MASSACRE, MAIMING AND CRUCIFYING OF PEOPLE OF BRYAN

From Saturday's Daily Eagle
Lieutenant Paul D. Oakes of the famous French escadrille, who spoke at the courthouse Friday afternoon while not an orator, is an unusually forceful speaker. He told of some things he had seen up to January 19, 1918, the day he set sail for the United States.

"Picture your own little city," he said, "attacked and captured by a German force. The town would be razed, the old men and women lined up and shot, the young boys and girls led to the chopping block and their right arms cut off. The women from 14 to 35 years of age would be inoculated with tuberculosis germs and sent back to their own people to spread the terrible disease. Small babies would be crucified on houses and barns, being driven through with bayonets. In Brussels, when the allied troops were marching on it to wrest it from the Germans, all civilians were ordered in their homes and every light was turned on. The order was given that when the first shell was fired, it would be a signal for the massacre of the citizens, for the Germans take no civilian prisoners."

"It was my privilege," continued the lieutenant, "to be in Paris when the first American expeditionary force arrived. The welcome given them by the French was a wonderful sight. I don't know whether any of you girls in the audience have sweethearts in the first expeditionary force, but I want to tell you that every American soldier had from three to four French girls on his neck."

He said that with the morale and equipment, the Americans had 1,000,000 were equal to 600,000 Germans.

"And the only way to keep up this great record is for the army to take home, which includes each and every one of you, ladies and gentlemen, to stand squarely behind the boys at the front. Buy Liberty bonds until it hurts."

Then he spoke of how five billion dollars was subscribed in England in January of this year, and the English receive no interest on their money, while U. S. bonds bear 4 1/2 per cent interest.

"Some of you Americans think you are having a hard time and are making great sacrifices, but you should see and know the French population. They have had no wheat, sugar or coffee since 1916. Their principal substance now is war bread and red wine, which is equivalent to your grape juice."

In stressing the sale of Liberty bonds, Lieutenant Oakes said that if a fourth loan was necessary that we would not be given the privilege of subscribing but that we would be assessed a certain amount of our holdings.

He concluded his regular speech without any reference to his own experience and Judge Maloney asked him if he would not tell them of some of the battles with the Huns above the clouds.

He told of his first fight, which was at Soissons, and later on at the second battle of Verdun and Lippencourt. Lieut. Oakes won his medal of honor when with fourteen other companions, they bombarded Frankfurt-on-the-Rhine and destroyed the machine gun section of the great Krupp works. His tale of the fight which ended by him killing the German airman and his fall of 150 feet to the ground, where he received the wound which incapacitated him for the time being, was highly exciting.

"But," he said, "with all the danger of the life on the western front, I had rather be there today with my companions, than standing here and making this talk."

Lieutenant Oakes has been detailed as instructor in acrobatic flying at Kelly field, San Antonio.

THE STATE OF TEXAS. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Brazos County—GREETING.

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon Henry Pearson by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Brazos County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in the City of Bryan, on the second Monday in May, A. D. 1918, the same being the 13th day of May, A. D. 1918, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 4th day of September, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 7584-A, wherein Essie Pearson is Plaintiff, and Henry Pearson is Defendant, and said petition alleging:

That Plaintiff and Defendant were legally married on the 28th day of March, 1913, in Brazos County, Texas, and that they lived together as man and wife until about September 1st, of same year, 1913, when Defendant, through no fault of Plaintiff, left and abandoned her, which since said time they have not lived together as man and wife; that Plaintiff does not know the whereabouts of Defendant, that it has been more than three years since his abandonment.

JOE BATTS HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE EARLY THIS MORNING

From Friday's Daily Eagle
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Batts, corner of College avenue and Twenty-eighth street, was burned this morning, the entire interior being consumed, together with all contents. The family and two guests escaped with only the clothes they were able to grab as they were hurriedly summoned.

The loss on the house and contents is estimated at $30,000. Insurance on the house was carried in the amount of $20,000 and on the furniture $1,000.

The fire was discovered by the negro yard man, who had a room in the basement. It is supposed to have started from spontaneous combustion as there was a pile of kindling and light wood stored there. The negro was awakened by dense smoke in the room. He broke a window with his fist, cutting himself quite badly, and immediately warned the people sleeping on the second floor. Mrs. Batts threw on a kimono and Mr. Batts grabbed his clothes, which he managed to put on hastily. Their little son was taken up bodily from his bed and removed in the arms of his parents with only his night clothes to protect him.

The fire department was promptly on the scene. They first made an attempt to extinguish the blaze with chemical apparatus, as there appeared to be more smoke than blaze, and at one time early in the fire thought they had it under control. The construction of the building, however, mitigated against that idea. It was a brick veneered building for the most part with metal lath and stucco at other points, hence the blaze did not break out, but slowly crawled up the wooden studding and after eating its way through the roof, formed a chimney between each pair of studding, breaking out fiercely again. The water pressure was excellent and the fire boys worked manfully and intelligently, but it was one of those fires it is quite impossible to get at successfully.

The walls of the building for the most part remain standing, but everything that was inside was consumed. It was a beautifully finished home, complete in all modern details, and handsomely furnished. It was one of the most admired places in Bryan, not only for its exterior appearance, but by reason of the elegant yet quiet taste displayed in its interior decorations and furnishings and in the quantity of comforts and conveniences it provided. It was comparatively new, having been occupied immediately after having been finished some four or five years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Batts, their son and guests were taken to the home of Mrs. John Astin. Their guests are Mrs. A. D. McConico and Mrs. Lavinia Dewafe of Houston, who occupied a room in the front part of the house in which was less smoke in the early part of the fire, enabling them to save a grip and their trunk and the clothes they had in the room.

Fifteen Additional Teachers at College

Fifteen experts in tires, motors, motor driving, electrical work and other phases of the motor and airplane industry have been added to the instructional staff of A. and M. college pending the course in motor mechanics, gas engine repairing, blacksmithing and other mechanical lines that is being given here for drafted men of the army. An expert on lubricants has been furnished by one of the leading oil companies of the country to give instructions on that topic. Three hundred and sixty-five men are already in attendance upon this school and between 2,500 and 3,000 men will take training here preparatory to doing repair work behind the lines of the American forces in France, between now and October 1.

Community Canner is Ordered for Edge

From Saturday's Daily Eagle
Miss Martha Gillespie attended the Edge community club meeting last night and reports that the community canner proposition there has been closed. Subscriptions to the amount of $200 were raised, which is to cover the expenses of the canner and the paraphernalia that goes with it, including the first order for cans. Miss Gillespie was authorized to place the order.

Mr. Beason made a talk on Liberty loan and Mr. R. B. Ewing spoke on ants. The children had a nice little program.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

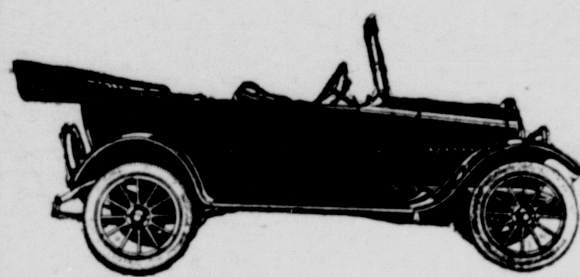

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before it Salivates You! It's Horrible.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Adv.

Any maker may claim for his product all the qualities there are. That is his privilege. He may even think his claims are justified.

You read the advertisements, so you know that makers, as a rule, are not over modest in that regard.

If you believe them all, they all make super-cars.

In your experience, that theory doesn't hold.

Maxwell is different.

We never claim anything we cannot prove.

As a matter of fact we never have claimed anything for this Maxwell that has not already been proved in public test and under official observation.

Maxwell claims are not therefore claims in the ordinary sense—they are statements of fact—proven facts.

They are, in every case, matters of official record attested under oath.

For example: The famous 22,000-mile Non-Stop run was made with the Maxwell every minute under observation of the A. A. A. officials.

That still remains a world's record—the world's record of reliability.

That particular test proved about all that anyone could ask or desire of a motor car.

Among other things it still stands the world's long distance speed record.

Just consider—44 days and nights without a stop, at an average speed of 25 miles per hour!

And that, not by a $2,000 car, but by a stock model Maxwell listing at $825.

You will recall perhaps that a famous high powered, high priced six in a transcontinental trip made 28 miles average over a period of five days and eleven hours.

Now compare those two feats—one of less than six days, the other of 44 days. You know automobiles—which was the greater test?

Is there any comparison on grounds either of speed or endurance?

Proves you don't need to pay more than $825 to obtain all the qualities you can desire in a motor car—if you select a Maxwell.

For that Maxwell Non-Stop run was made, not on a track but over rough country roads and through city traffic—average of all kinds of going.

And—listen to this.

So certain were we of the condition of the Maxwell at the end of that great feat, we announced that at the stroke of eleven on a certain morning, the car would stop in front of the City Hall, Los Angeles, for the Mayor to break the seal.

Five seconds after he had pulled the switch plug and stopped the motor after the 44 days and nights continuous running, she was started again and off on a thousand mile jaunt to visit various Maxwell dealers.

How is that for precision—certainty of action? That incident brought a storm of applause from the assembled thousands.

Hill climbing?—this Maxwell holds practically every record worth mentioning—especially in the West where the real hills are.

The Mount Wilson record—nine and one-half miles, 6,000 feet elevation!—was taken by a stock Maxwell.

Two months ago a 12-cylinder car beat that record by two minutes.

Then—three days later—a stock Maxwell went out and beat that 12-cylinder record by thirty seconds! Pretty close going for such a distance and such a climb—wasn't it?

So Maxwell still holds the Mount Wilson honors.

Ready to defend it against all comers too, at any time—a stock Maxwell against any stock or special chassis.

Economy—also a matter of official record.

Others may claim—Maxwell proves.

Thousands of Maxwell owners throughout the United States on the same day averaged 29.4 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Not dealers or factory experts, mind you, but owners—thousands of them—driving their own Maxwells.

Nor were they new Maxwells—the contest was made by 1915, 16, and 17 models, many of which had seen tens of thousands miles of service—three years' use.

Nor could they choose their own road or weather conditions—all kinds were encountered in the various sections of the country.

Good roads and bad—level country and mountainous regions—heat and cold—sunshine and rain—aspalt and mud.

And the average was 29.4 miles per gallon!

There's economy for you. And under actual average driving conditions—not laboratory test.

But that isn't all.

The greatest achievement of this Maxwell was in its showing of speed and reliability and economy all in the same run.

In that 44 days-and-nights Non-Stop run, though no thought was given to either speed or economy, it still remains a fact of official record that the Maxwell averaged 22 miles per gallon and 25 miles per hour.

Now you know that speed costs—and that economy tests are usually made at slow-speed—closed-throttle, thin-mixture conditions.

You know too that you can obtain economy of fuel by building and adjusting for that one condition.

Speed you can get by building for speed. Any engineer can do that.

But to obtain that combination of speed and economy with the wonderful reliability shown in that 44-days Non-Stop run—that car must be a Maxwell.

COUNTRY CLUB WILL COLLECT MONEY AND START ITS BUILDING

From Wednesday's Daily Eagle
At a meeting of the directors of the Bryan Country club, held yesterday, it was voted that all members who fail to pay by the fifth of May in full the amounts they are due the club will forfeit their membership. The club directors are preparing to undertake building construction on a considerable scale this spring and they cannot do so unless they have the money. Secretary O. E. Saunders says there is about $4,000 outstanding, all of which is due, and in order to make the improvements contemplated the club must have the money. The stock in the club is considered good collateral, in that it owns 100 acres of land upon which about $7,000 worth of improvements have been made and the club has an indebtedness of only about $5,000 on the land, easily less than one-fifth the value of its holdings.

A meeting of the building and grounds committee is to be held Thursday with the architect for the purpose of receiving plans for the bathhouses and improvements in connection with the swimming pool. The pool is completed, the well is sunk and the electric pump is in place, but not yet connected with the current from the Bryan & College interurban line. The present plans contemplate building a concrete walk several feet wide on all four sides of the swimming pool, covering the walks with a roof, and at each end of the pool erecting a bathhouse, one for women and the other for men, these to be of attractive design and stucco construction.

The golf links committee will have the links in shape for playing this week. Within sixty days, by reason of collecting all that is due the club, it is expected that work on the clubhouse will have been started.

TOOK ALL BUT A DOLLAR.

Fire Protection company No. 1 had a called meeting last night to vote on using the money in the treasury for purchasing Liberty bonds. The report of the treasurer showed that the company had $101 on hand, so it was voted to buy a $100 bond, leaving just a dollar on hand. However, the treasury was augmented by the payment of dues by several members, and its funds are swelling so that it will be ready for another bond issue by the time of the next call.

HOISTING HONOR FLAGS.

A. M. Waldrop returned yesterday by auto from Waco. "At several places through which we passed they were flying their Liberty loan honor flags and at Reisel they were having a big flag raising and celebrating to beat the band," he said.

NEGROES SUBSCRIBING.

The negroes of this section are investing quite liberally in Liberty bonds, although not in large sums, most of them being in the $50 and $100 classes. Brazos and contiguous counties have some prosperous and even wealthy negroes, among them Riley Sadberry of Robertson county, but who has done his trading here and borrowed his money here for a great many years until he is the owner of several thousand acres of land, well equipped for farm work. Yesterday he was in town and was solicited to purchase a Liberty bond and came down with the largest subscription yet made by a negro in this section, $1,000.

Proclamation by the Mayor

Whereas, the president of the United States has issued a proclamation making Friday, April 26, a holiday for the purpose of patriotic rallies, and for the purpose of promoting the sale of Liberty bonds, and has requested that all the people of the United States desist from their usual occupations, and enter into the business of making their respective communities "Go over the top" in the sale of bonds.

Now, therefore, I, John M. Lawrence, mayor of the city of Bryan, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor, do hereby call upon the people of the city of Bryan to close their various places of business and to observe for the afternoon of Friday, April 26, 1918, the president's wishes, and make same a patriotic holiday, and that everyone make it their business that afternoon to do everything in their power to make Bryan and Brazos county purchase their quota of the third Liberty bonds.

LIKE AN ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES

Tells why a corn is so painful and says cutting makes them grow.

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, with out pain. This drug freezone is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. Adv.

TEACH NO GERMAN IN LOWER GRADES OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Hon. J. R. Astin has returned from Washington where he attended the national council for defense meeting as the representative from Texas. The gathering was more than that of the council, having been called by Secretary Lane of the interior department to discuss after the war problems relative to the better assimilation of the foreign element into this government. Mr. Astin says Mr. Lane made one of the finest talks on the subject to which he has ever listened, outlining a policy for the proper education of these foreigners and instructing them in the principles of our government.

The gathering was that of the representatives of the state councils of defense, the governors and leading educators of the country. Mr. Astin says the governors of something like fifteen western states were there coming from Montana, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, South Dakota as well as the more eastern states. Chamberlains of commerce were also represented.

The first day was spent with Secretary Lane's department and the second day with the navy department at the request of Secretary Daniels. On the afternoon of the second day the members of the state councils for defense held a meeting with Director Gifford, wherein they exchanged plans and ideas as to the conduct of war activities, and gained a review of the national situation.

"At this meeting," said Mr. Astin, "I presented the matter for which I especially went to Washington, that of the farm labor problem. I urged that relief for the producers be obtained. Governor Townsend of Delaware told of the law they have and a gentleman from Maryland said they have a workable law, whereby able bodied men between the ages of 18 and 50 must be engaged in some essential pursuit. I made the proposition that the national council memorialize congress for a law that would afford relief, and although I was supported in this by the governor of Delaware, Governor Manning of South Carolina, the governor of New Jersey and the Maryland representative, we did not meet with full success."

Mr. Astin said that the general meeting adopted a resolution memorializing congress to pass a law prohibiting teaching of German in the elementary grades of the public schools. This would not prohibit teaching of German in the high schools.

"The governor of New Jersey told me that the legislature of that state had appropriated a million dollars for the use of the state council for defense. I asked and secured an appropriation from the Texas legislature for $50,000 and thought I was asking a lot," said Mr. Astin.

"I found the gentlemen in Washington much concerned over the situation on the battle front. The battle was going on while I was in Washington, and while they were confident that we would win, nevertheless they were very anxious."

HARVEY.

Harvey, April 24.—We have had the best season this spring in three years and prospects for a good crop are to date very favorable. Farmers generally are well up with their planting. Gardens are not as good as usual, on account of the destructive cut worms, nevertheless, some are fine, while others are diligently replanting and trying to get a start before hot weather. One of our neighbors discovered that a piece of paper wrapped around the stem of the plant to be reset will keep worms from cutting it.

We think we will have a good crop of peaches but not many berries. It is claimed that the long drought and severe winter caused cattle to eat the tender dewberry shoots, thus mostly destroying this year's growth.

Our school did not have its usual closing entertainment this session. Professor Ford and Chester Jones both received their cards to report for duty, two and three weeks since. Miss Essie Jones continued teaching her grades; her school will close Friday. Miss Essie has been sick for two days.

We are sorry indeed to lose Messrs. Ford and Jones. They are both young men of excellent morals, always standing for the right in every subject that arose, both so helpful in the church. Our best wishes attend them.

Mrs. Lee Andrews was elected superintendent of the Harvey Sunday school in place of Mr. Ford.

The Rev. Mr. Tatum held services in the Free Baptist church last Sunday at 3 p. m. and will continue to have service every Saturday at 11 a. m. and third Sunday at 3 p. m. Rev. W. E. Bard will be given the afternoon of the first Sunday at 3 p. m. Red Cross met this morning with a large attendance. We had only three machines, some of the basters being frequently idle waiting for stitching to be done. However, we completed fifteen shirts, making a total of 124 hospital garments and twenty-four knit garments since November and about $19 dues collected lately. It is reported that society has been organized at Coleview with Mrs. Alice Cole as president. This is a fine idea as the ladies around Coleview have never attended this meeting.

HOBSON SANTIAGO STUNT PULLED OFF BY BRITISH AT GERMAN U-BOAT BASES

(By Associated Press)

London, April 23.—British naval forces today raided the German submarine bases of Ostend and Zeebrugge, the admiralty announces. Five old cruisers filled with concrete to block the entrance of the channels were run aground, blown up and abandoned by their crews. The admiralty reports, according to incomplete reports, that the raid was reasonably successful.

Ostend and Zeebrugge are the principal bases for submarine operations in the North sea and the English channel. To deprive Germans of these bases would mean a most effective step in dealing with the submarines.

In all probability the entrance to the Bruges canal has been blocked effectively in the consequence of the naval raid, Sir Eric Geddes, first Lord Admiralty, announced in the house of commons today.

The result of the operation Sir Eric said he regarded as very successful. He said that while the operation was in progress British parties were landed to distract the enemy. The officer who developed the scheme of attack was killed. Storming parties were landed on the mole from the cruiser Vindictive. Casualties to the personnel were heavy in proportion to number engaged. An enemy destroyer was torpedoed at Zeebrugge.

Casualties to the British craft, Sir Eric said, were one destroyer and two coastal motor boats sunk and two launches missing.

Federal and State Aid for Millican Highway is Awarded by Commission

From Tuesday's Daily Eagle

County Judge J. T. Maloney announced to the directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Commercial association, at their meeting this morning, that the state highway commission had awarded the Millican road district $37,752.25 in the way of government and state aid for building the state designated highway through that district. The entire project is expected to cost about $75,000, hence the bonds that have been voted will have to be sold in sufficient quantities to make up the difference. The judge expects to use sinking funds of different county bond issues with which to purchase Millican road bonds as far as the sinking funds will go, about $22,000, and has asked the banks of Bryan and Navasota to take up sufficient of the bonds to pay for the remainder of this highway, these to be redeemed in four or five years. He was instructed to get in touch with the Navasota bankers and arrange for a conference with the Bryan bankers on the subject, which he said he would do immediately.

Secretary Eberstadt stated that Mayor John M. Lawrence had notified him that Hon. R. E. L. Knight, of Dallas, would speak here, May 18. He is to speak at the college the following day, May 19. A committee to arrange for Mr. Knight will be appointed a little later.

The matter of going on record relative to the pink boll worm menace and the situation that confronts Texas as a result of the determination of some farmers to disregard the quarantine, especially since the high courts have declared the law ineffective, was postponed until the next meeting, because of the lateness of the hour.

Twelve out of fourteen directors of the club were present. The meetings lately have been fully attended, but habitually start late because of slow assemblage.

Mo., has been visiting John Ferguson's family.

Weldon Jones has been sick lately, but is all right now. His grandfather, Taylor Wyatt, who resides with them, is quite sick now, and has been for several weeks.

The community met at Bethel cemetery last Saturday and cleaned it off. They carried dinner with them, had services in the church in the morning and worked in the afternoon. Some time ago a few met at the other church one afternoon and in a few hours made a wonderful improvement in the looks of that cemetery. It is a very laudable thing in a community to repair and beautify the final resting place of our beloved dead.

The club has held in trust the remainder of the funds left over from the singing convention held here last year, about $525, and after a full discussion, this money was transferred to the use of the war activities board of the club, thus putting it to the use of the nation.

LANDING STATION /ABANDONED.

A CHILD HATES OIL. CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, sick, feverish, constipated.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. Their children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

Stomach Trouble

Mrs. Sophie Bauer, 521 First Ave., North, Faribault, Minnesota, writes:

"I cannot praise your wonderful medicine, Peruna, enough. It has done much for me during the past ten years and I keep it in the house continually. I was in such a condition that I could eat nothing but bread and milk, and even that was too heavy for me at times. Now, I can eat anything. I will recommend Peruna to all my friends."

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.
